Dear KidSport Stakeholders,

Effective May 1st Sandra Stevenson is stepping down as the CEO for KidSport Canada. On behalf of the Board of Directors of KidSport Canada I want to acknowledge her extraordinary leadership, vision and passion and wish her the very best with all her future endeavours. She is an inspiration to all of us! Sandra has poured her heart, soul and her decades of experience into building the foundation for KidSport Canada's future successes. Sandra often says that she sees herself as an agent of hope, or a sport navigator, for those in the community who lack the knowledge or the resources to get involved in community sports. This was the vision that drove Sandra to do all that she has done "So ALL Kids Can Play".

Sandra's letter to the Board states, "In 2007, I made a six month commitment to champion the creation of a national organization for KidSport. Everyone agreed a national approach would generate more money to help more kids. Three years later I am proud to say that in 2009 KidSport raised over $7,000,000 resulting in direct support to 60,000 kids. It is time to pass the torch to a new CEO and it is time for me to spend more time with family and friends-especially my four grandsons, all under five and the new grandchild arriving in November!"

As KidSport Canada Co-Chair, I want you to know the search for a new CEO is underway and an announcement will be made shortly. Sandra is continuing to help through the transition period, along with Stana Campbell the new Communications Coordinator and many of the Board members. Our aim is to make the transition as smooth as possible for all stakeholders. Thanks for your continued support in making KidSport Canada a success.

Sincerely,

Leila Bell Irving, Co-Chair
KidSport Canada
