KidSport™ provides grants for children 18 and under to participate in a sport season of their choice. KidSport works to fulfill its mission of eliminating financial barriers to sport participation, So ALL Kids Can Play! For more information, please visit www.kidsportcanada.ca/alberta

How does KidSport help?

- KidSport provides grants to children from families facing financial barriers, so they can participate in registered sport programs.
- KidSport supports programs that provide the child with a sustained sport experience led by qualified instructors.
- KidSport can provide no cost, gently used equipment to qualified kids through Comrie's Sports Bank

Who is eligible to receive a KidSport grant?

- Families who are low income, on AISH, unemployed, or receiving income support through provincial government are all considered eligible.
- KidSport considers the social and economic barriers facing the family when determining eligibility.
- Grants for children and youth 18 years and under.

What does a KidSport grant cover?

- KidSport provides financial support for registration fees. KidSport Calgary & Area can provide up to $375 per eligible child, per calendar year towards sport registration fees. Calendar year runs from January 1 – December 31.
- If the child needs equipment, you will get set up with Comrie's Sports Bank so you can make an appointment with them.
- Grants are intended to be used for sport registration fees. Apparel, equipment, drop in passes and travel to competitions is not eligible for funding.

When is the deadline to apply?

- It's best to submit your application to KidSport as soon as you register your child in the sport program.
- Programs that are already finished are not eligible for funding.
